

Because of the love you bled
I'm hidden in Christ, to live
You are my righteousness, my God
Each morning I die your death
Breathe in your redemptive breath
You are my daily bread, my God

Set my eyes, on the glory of my delight
Son of life, be the crown of my soul's desire
Hidden in Christ

And when I lay down to sleep
I'll rest in your perfect peace
You are my deepest need, my God
Because you are with me, friend
I'll rise and be welcomed in
You are my glorious end, my God

Set my eyes, on the glory of my delight
Son of life, be the crown of my soul's desire
Hidden in Christ
Hidden in Christ

Sheltered in Your light

Sheltered in Your light
Sheltered in Your light
