

Surprised

Citizens

Here I go again
I got one foot ready and another unsure of it
Same old bind, just a brand new circumstance
If I don't do this now, I may never get off the fence

Well no one ever knows what they really know
If we never let ourselves begin
And I don't want to waste anymore today
Only got one life here

I wanna be surprised
I wanna be surprised, oh

I know now what I heard
It was your bright soft voice in the middle of my lowest point
Raised me up, like a dove riding the wind, oh my god
Well I'm ready to feel it all again, a wide awakening

I wanna be surprised
I wanna be surprised
I wanna be surprised
I wanna be surprised, oh

Don't let me cover my eyes

Well no one ever knows what they really know
If we never let ourselves begin
And I don't want to waste anymore today
Only got one life here

I wanna be surprised
I wanna be surprised
Don't let me cover my eyes
I wanna be surprised, oh

Oh, oh, oh
Don't let me cover my eyes
Oh, oh, oh
