

Again I'm missing you

Citron

A bird chasing the skies whatever are you
You hide behind your lies dreams so untrue

I'm here alone again in need of direction Really can't remember when I felt so much affection

Life is only just began far beyond to understand Is it you, you're running flow hear my call, take my hand

In need of freedom
take a look into your mind
You're livin' for the reason prisoner life and time
In need of freedom
never let it fade away
now we are like a bird

Share so many secrets more than we never tell Never see the stranger in yourself...

In need of freedom
In need of freedom
now we are like a bird
