Watching full of power as he stands an eagle who encircles the land Echoes are calling us near mystery that we all fear

A wisdom that we never see shadows seeking silently Magic whatever he goes a ghost nobody knows

Message of freedom your reign we will defend Long live your kingdom until the very end

We fly so high and free sailing together
Over the land and sea searching forever
We fly so high and free gimme time to shine
Over the land and sea over the sun, over the sun

You're one step beyond, your spell from the hill up on high time tells in your eyes

A wisdom that we never see shadows seeking silently Magic whatever he goes a ghost nobody knows

Message of freedom your reign we will defend Long live your kingdom until the very end

We fly so high and free sailing together
Over the land and sea searching forever
We fly so high and free gimme time to shine
Over the land and sea over the sun, over the sun
