

Loosing My Face

Citron

Time goes by as I walk alone, above all the skies I got the time
But I have to go in the shade of clouds it's a funny day but have a bitter face, all alone
I'm tired to stone

Falling sleeping
should I wait long?
It's a big disgrace, wait too long, something is wrong All I want it's just start once more I have lost my face way for a life-long time Why me, I'm asking are you me?

Waiting for you
loosing my face
Waiting for you
loosing my face

All my face faded
with the fast
And the time goes by it's getting tire me
Time for end set many hours did I have to wait dreaming It will be great when you you finally comes

Waiting for you
loosing my face
Waiting for you
loosing my face

Waiting for you
loosing my face
Waiting for you
loosing my face
