

Imagination

City and Colour

A future
Inch by inch
A devotion
So saccharine
It's a million
Miles wide
Magnificent
Like the depths of the sky

My imagination will
Lead me straight down into hell
So I'm gonna keep on living
Until the dancing days are gone
No I will not seek forgiveness
From a world that's grown so cold and vicious
I'm gonna keep on living
Until the dancing days are gone
Long gone

Emotional
Like an avalanche of joy
It melts my nerves
This beautiful noise
Elated
Unknown to despair
Illuminated
Burning in the air

My imagination will
Lead me straight down into hell
So I'm gonna keep on living
Until the dancing days are gone
No I will not seek forgiveness
From a world that's grown so cold and vicious
I'm gonna keep on living
Until the dancing days are gone
Long gone
