

Ladies and Gentelman

City and Colour

It's the poison running
Through your blood
It's the broken levee
That brought the flood
It's the loaded barrel of a gun

There is darkness roaming
Through everything
Evil urges awakening
But, the bitter souls
Who will never rest
Good luck,
Ladies and Gentlemen

It's all the days when
You're lacking love
And you hear the cry from
The morning dove
Then you feel the breath
Leave your lungs

There is darkness roaming
Through everything
Evil urges awakening
The bitter souls
Who will never rest
Good luck,
Ladies and Gentlemen
