

So Much More To Give

City Lights

If I try my hardest
If I give it all I have
Do you think I could change
Do you think that I could grow
As I look back on all the events of last year
I wonder what the hell was I thinking
And I've got so much more to give
And I'm not giving up just yet

Please tell me
I'm not just wasting time
Just wasting time

I never thought I'd be left alone to fend for myself
I guess you really can't trust anyone these days
I'm stuck in a rat race

If I run my farthest, do you think I'd be okay?
Leaving it all behind and changing my name
Or should I stay and face my fears
And the people I thought I could count on Stay and face my fears
And you

Please tell me
I'm not just wasting time
Holding on to those who don't believe
Who don't believe

I never thought I'd be left alone to fend for myself
I guess you really can't trust anyone these days
I'm stuck in a rat race
But I won't let myself fall down anymore
No I won't let myself fall down anymore

Go!

The world moves so quickly when I can't pick up the pace
I just keep telling myself, slow and steady wins the race
The world moves so quickly when I can't pick up the pace
I just keep telling myself, slow and steady wins the race
Slow and steady wins the race

I never thought I'd be left alone to fend for myself
I guess you really can't trust anyone these days
1, 2, 3, 4!

I never thought I'd be left alone to fend for myself
I guess you really can't trust anyone these days
I'm stuck in a rat race
But I won't let myself fall down anymore
No I won't let myself fall down anymore
Won't let myself fall down anymore

Anymore
