

Walkers Ridge

City Sleeps

On walkers ridge love is not enough
And time keeps ticking on without us
Hand in hand the gods will ignore
Confused the rain here comes your face
A strange one with familiar traces
Silver tears you left there before

Now will you fall into a different world
Where I'd be the only one

And I've only missed you to pick my locks
And try to guess who's come around and who's stayed
And I've tried to stay alive
I cried myself to sleep every night
Dreaming to recapture the faces you made

I've got two pills in the usual drink
And I'd be the only one

Chorus:

'Cause you drive me crazy
You know that you do
It hurts that you won't be mine
'Cause you drive me crazy (crazy)

On walker's ridge time is not enough
To burn the houses down looking up
Eye to eye the gods will recognize
You left a trail of tears behind
And all the streets end up intertwined
So walker's ridge is where I will die

I've got two pills in the usual drink

Chorus

Crazy
You know that you do
It hurts that you won't be mine
You drive me crazy
(You drive me crazy, crazy)
