

Do Something

CIV

Stand for one
Stand for something
And for yourself,
You're coming up with nothing
He does not think
He does not care
Looking out for yourself 'cause it's not your pain to bear
And it's all coming back
Back home
Another point you never get
Another story, I'll make a bet
It's a lie
Because you're taking again
Your taking again
You take, you never give
It's not shocking
You're flaking again
I'm sorry my friend, but that's no way live
You wanna drain me but this well has just run dry
You wanna frame me, but that shit just won't fly
Do something
Do something and try
