

Shout It

CIV

Nothing's changing
There's no way out
A generation
Whose time has come to...

Shout it!
Over and over, over and over - if you want to be heard you've got to shout it! Over and over, over and over

I've got a friend and he doesn't understand
Why he's got cuts and bruises up and down his hands
He's got all the time
But he's got none to spare and no one even told him that life isn't fair and no one cares

Shout it! over and over, over and over
If you want to be heard you've got to shout it! over and over, over and over

What are you waiting for
The rest of your life is knocking at your door
You find it so easy to hide (You find it so easy to hide)
Cause you're safe and warm when you're inside
You've blown a million opportunities
But now the time has come for you to

Shout it! over and over, over and over
If you want to be heard you've got to shout it! over and over, over and over now

You're scared
You think your time is running out
Had all the time in the world
You said "don't worry
" You've got it all figured out
Had all the time in the world,
Now I think this is your last chance!
My generation
Your generation
You say you wanna be heard
You've got to stand and shout it!

Shout it! over and over, over and over
If you want to be heard you've got to shout it! over and over, over and over

Before it's too late!
