

Trust Slips Through Your Hands

CIV

Putting on an act that just isn't working
You stole from your friends when you thought they weren't looking
Your whole fucking life, you put on a front
You pushed it to the point when my trust slips through your hands
Trust
You don't understand
Trust
Slips through your hands
Oh thought you were the one
It's what you haven't got

Try to play it cool
Why be something that you're not?
It's just the fucking point that you steal, that you miss
You pushed it to the point when my trust slips through your hands
Trust
You don't understand
Trust
Slips through your hands
Trust
Slips through your hands
