Little girl just flesh & blood You're blond to see the pain ahead I've been waiting & plotting what I'll do with you Won't someone warn her Death's around the corner

Stay awake don't close your eyes Cause all I want is you Stay awake or you will die And all I need is you

Trapped inside that little room
Your closet death is coming soon
I hear you scratching, but there's no way I'll let you go
Won't someone warn her
Death's around the corner

There is no way out I won't let you go
