

Only For A Time

Civil Twilight

Tell me what you were thinking
Tell me what you were saying
Tell me what you were doing wrong
I'll be your witness
I'll be the stone you throw through the window

The shadowy room you lie in
The dirty rings in the basin
The creases under your eyes
Don't let them beat you
Don't even try to understand

It will be only for a time
Only for a time it will be

Everyone knows, it comes and goes
Yet everyone tries to hold it down
This precious moment
The blissful cloud we find ourselves in

It will be only for a time
Only for a time it will be

It will be only for a time
Only for a time it will be

No, I never wanna let you go
No, I never wanna let you go
No, I never wanna see you cry

No, I never wanna let you go
No, I never wanna let you go
No, I never wanna see you cry

No, I never wanna let you go
No, I never wanna let you go
No, I never wanna see you cry

No, I never wanna see you cry

It will be only for a time
Only for a time it will be

It will be only for a time
Only for a time it will be

This will be only for a time
Only for a time it will be

No, I never wanna let you go
No, I never wanna let you go
No, I never wanna see you cry

No, I never wanna let you go
No, I never wanna let you go
No, I never wanna see you cry

No, I never wanna let you go
No, I never wanna let you go
No, I never wanna see you cry
