

Lord
Lord
Lord

Don't mek dem fool you
Don't let me embarrass you
Don't let dem fool you
Don't believe for a minute
That they won't kill you

Don't mek dem fool you
Don't let me embarrass you
Don't let dem fool you
Don't believe for a minute
That they won't kill you

Look at my life different since I read decoded
Don't like crowded settings cause I'm claustrophobic
I can't lose momentum cause this is a moment
Niggas ratting acting like they not a rodent
Boy you got a curfew you are not roadman
I be on the Jackie driving like it's stolen
Sherbert or Gelato usually what I'm rolling
Started using magnums living my life golden
Shit like an intrusion the way that I go in
Got way too much on the line for me to blow it
Almost killed that boy the homies told low him
If not ICU you know where he was going
We might be associates but we not homies
You may know the music but you don't know me
I'm still on fucked up on the fact that we lost Kobe
Steelo, Nipsey, Chynna, Black, and now I'm doley
Making some more angels out in California
This one for my d boys that's still on the corner
Keep a distance even after this corona
This another body call up the coroner

Don't mek dem fool you
Don't let me embarrass you
Don't let dem fool you
Don't believe for a minute
That they won't kill you

Don't mek dem fool you
Don't let me embarrass you
Don't let dem fool you
Don't believe for a minute
That they won't kill you
