Open up your third eye I be blind
Trapped inside the matrix for your mind
All this simulation was designed
Didn't know uh when you see the signs
All I see is green
Thought it was a dream
Nothing is what it seems
Balance like a pin
Now my enemies
Gon' remember me
Trapped inside my memories

Trapped inside my memories

Been going crazy think I need a doctor
Opposition try to stop us
All 'bout my action never been a talker
They gonna spin again like helicopters
They gon' think I'm really up my rocker
Enemies don't wanna see me prosper
Coulda got them shaken like maracas
But they wasn't with it shot them with my shotgun
The way they come for me I'm feeling attacked
I know they tryna get me I move intact
They know I'm the one they keep tryna subtract
They don't adding up I won't fall for they traps
As soon as they blink watch you slip through the crack
A resurrection, thanks for bringing me back
I love my potential, my power was hidden
If I tell the dogs 'em to sic 'em they get them
So you better give in 'cause that's just a given (Fly)
