Fly!

You won't ever have to rob folks like I did
You won't ever need to steal stuff like I did
You won't ever have to sell drugs like I did
You won't ever need a thing cause you my kid
You won't ever have to rob folks like I did
You won't ever need to steal stuff like I did
You won't ever have to sell drugs like I did
You won't ever need a thing cause you my kid

Used to take it off the rack like I worked the floor
Generational wealth what I'm working towards
I'm gone be a millionaire before my first is one
Any time I shoot my shot I got perfect form
A healthy child is what we was hoping for
Been holding shit down for so long I injured both my arm
Lost the first baby and it broke our heart
Always knew from the beginning it was gone be hard

Olorun blessed me with the skill of rhyming
After the storm, came the sun, so this the silver lining
This year been wild our plan still aligning
Stuck together, social distance made us feel divided
I'm already ill, ain't tryna get the virus
One of best and I just guess I'm bias
I'm like a pyro I stay spitting fires
I'm killing shit like I was Miguel Myers
I can't rock your clothing brand if it ain't by us

Some y'all in it for the wrong reasons
You can't lend a helping a hand then you all reaching
Need to support black business for all four seasons
There's opportunities in life that we ain't all seizing
This lockdown gave us the clarity we all needed
Watching the news and I could see the lies that y'all feed us
What we plant about the blossom now my girl seeded
Only 5 months I can't believe my child's a small fetus
I'm celebrating this
First generation rich
All the times that we've taken risks
We thank god we ain't get pinched
Shoutouts to my prody roka cause he made the link
I was only making songs but now we made a kid
I gotta say that this my best collaboration yet
After I drop this unreleased they'll say CJ's the best
And 8 more projects in the stash is just what may come next
I keep applying all this pressure I'll be breaking necks

You won't ever have to rob folks like I did
You won't ever have to steal stuff like I did
You won't ever need to sell drugs like I did
You won't ever need a thing cause our my kid
You won't ever have to rob folks like I did
You won't ever need to steal stuff like I did
