

Lover Like Me

CL

Remember the last time
You called me Chae Lin
Can't remember the last time
You called me that name
You always said that
I would be the main thing
And now you gonna switch lanes

Caught you out there, honey you
So so funny
You come back running, running
Yeah, you miss my love
And you miss my money
Let me tell you something, something

I just got to let you know
If you're gonna let me go
You will never ever find another lover like me
No lover like me

(Like me-me, lover like, like me-me, lover like)
You will never ever find another
(Lover like me, lover like me, lover, lover like me, lover like me)
You will never ever find another

Now you got some time riding solo
Trying to get me back on a low low
Baby let me tell you it's a no, no
I think that you should go home

Caught you out there, honey you
So so funny
You come back running, running
Yeah, you miss my love
And you miss my money
And I tell you something, something

I just got to let you know
If you're gonna let me go
You will never ever find another lover like me
No lover like me

(Like me-me, lover like, like me-me, lover like)
You will never ever find another
(Lover like me, lover like me, lover, lover like me, lover like me)
You will never ever find another
