

don't miss me

Claire Rosinkranz

Feeling kinda nervous
Starting things not really like me
Got a boyfriend says he likes me
Guess I like him but it's funny
Cause I'm not big on relationships
I'm more down for the flirt
All my friends say it's a problem
Nah, I just rather not get hurt

Cause I can't take my feelings
And I can't trust my heart
So I never take my chances
Cause I know I'll break apart

I hate the mushy shit and
I tell it how it is and
I wish that I was kidding
But I'm not good at listening
So I don't want someone missing me

I'm so unpredictable
One day I'm irresistible
The next I hate myself
Never good for someone else

So I try to stay away
Don't want them dealing with my brain
But suddenly he's got me folding
Cause I only want him to hold me, yuck

But I can't take my feelings
And I can't trust my heart
So I never take my chances
Cause I know I'll break apart

I hate the mushy shit and
I tell it how it is and
I wish that I was kidding
But I'm not good at listening
So I don't want someone missing me
I hate the mushy shit and
I tell it how it is and
I wish that I was kidding
But I'm not good at listening
So I don't want someone missing me
