

Jayden

Claire Rosinkranz

I used to be happy
You said you were too
I catch myself laughing
But now it's not with you

Ohhh Jayden
Didn't know that we were playing chess this whole damn time
Just waiting
I don't wanna wait but I would waste my time for you

You make me feel blue cause I think about you tying my shoes
And laughing between kisses this is torture like my dirty dishes
God it's like I'm starving, feed me baby please
I'm not even embarrassed 'cause I know you're what I need

Me and you in New York, me and you anywhere
Watch the first snow at Cafe Reggio
You've got a face like my prayers

Jayden
Didn't know that we were playing chess this whole damn time
Just waiting
I don't wanna wait but I would waste my time for you

You make me feel blue cause I think about you tying my shoes
And laughing between kisses this is torture like my dirty dishes
God it's like I'm starving, feed me baby please
I'm not even embarrassed 'cause I know you're what I need

Me eee
Ooooo
Ooo ooo
Me eee ooo

Darling walk me back home and please don't leave me alone
Just swaddle me to your chest and take me in with your breath
Ahhh
Baby call me your baby, want your fingers to trace me
If you're going away you might as well just erase me

Me eee
Ooooo
Ooo ooo
Me eee ooo

You make me feel blue 'cause I think about you tying my shoes
And laughing between kisses this is torture like my dirty dishes
God it's like I'm starving, feed me baby please
I'm not even embarrassed 'cause I know you're what I need

Baby call me your baby, want your fingers to trace me
If you're going away you might as well erase me
Baby call me your baby, want your fingers to trace me
If you're going away you might as well erase me
