

Anticipate

Clairo

If you could ever be kind to me
We could air it out
And then you pick a fight on me
If you would ever be nice to me
We could let it out
I'd let you take a ride on me

Ooh ooh ooooh

I'm simply holding out for love
I don't mind the wait
I know it's exciting to anticipate the comedown

Won't you let me in, boy

If you could be kinder to me
We could hash it out
Make it lighter baby
I can be more than just a pretty thing
I can hash it out before another round don't you think

I'm simply holding out for love
I don't mind the wait
I know it's exciting to anticipate the comedown

Won't you let me in, boy

I know it's exciting to anticipate the comedown

Won't you let me in, boy
