

Dream Of Fools

Clan of Xymox

I am so confused, I don't understand you anymore
Some days you seem so close and others yet so far away
I want to hold you and feel that love again
I want to look in your eyes and see that love again

but I am holding nothing, just a dream of fools
I am holding nothing, a dream of fools

I don't know how long it's been Whatever happened, I have no idea

Sometimes you take for granted a word people often misuse:
Love , love , love , love
This dream of fools, the ideal of fools, the truth of fools fools , fools
This line seems so old
This love seems so cold
When I woke up I had to face a strange and lonely day
When I woke up I had to stay far away
From this dream of fools
-love, love, love-
The ideal of fools
-love, love, love-
The truth of fools
-love, love, love-
This dream of fools
The ideal of fools
The truth of fools
