

I Close My Eyes

Clan of Xymox

I saw you once, I saw you twice
You walked on by, you caught my eye
You laughed so fast, I felt surprised
My soul on fire, and burning bright

I close my eyes when I think of you
I dream of you and no one else

I close my eyes and nothing else
I dream of you and the way it felt

I think of you, more than you know
You gave me bliss, and sweet delight
I felt alive, back from the dead
I wish I could find you, all over again

I close my eyes and nothing else

I picture you with someone else

And don't say you loved me once
You have been here before
I don't care I was wrong or maybe your right

We should have talked night and day
Our problems would be far away
The words in my head, my lips can't say

I close my eyes and nothing else
You're in my thoughts and nothing else

I close my eyes, I close my eyes, I close my eyes
I close my eyes, I close my eyes, I close my eyes
