

Brave Enough

Clannad

I will need to Face what I've done
I will see through
I know what is wrong

Am I strong, will I fail
Am I brave enough today
Or will I fall, will I fail
Am I brave enough today

From not knowing
Where to begin
To the need for more
Gets under my skin

Am I strong, will I fail
Am I brave enough today
Or will I fall, will I fail
Am I brave enough today

Am I strong, will I fail
Am I brave enough today
Or will I fall, will I fail
Am I brave enough to say
That I'm not strong

I'll be right beside you
Be your light to guide you

So do I need you
What's done is done
And I can see through you
I've held on too long

Am I strong, will I fail
Am I brave enough today
Or will I fall, will I fail
Am I brave enough to stay

Am I strong, will I fail
Am I brave enough today
Or will I fall, will I fail
Am I brave enough to say

Am I strong, will I fail
Am I brave enough today
Or will I fall, will I fail
Am I brave enough to stay

Am I strong, will I fail
Am I brave enough today
Or will I fall, will I fail
Am I brave enough to say

I still need you
