Key to Love

Eric Clapton

I never realized that you were in pain. I wanna help you honey, let me see you again. Hurts my soul, babe, when I find you feeling rough. Life is so bad, baby, when I find the key to love.

Put a smile on your face and dry away your tears. Life is bound to get better as you live your years. Hurts my soul, babe, when I find you feeling rough. Life is so bad, baby, when I find the key to love.

Somewhere in this world, the one you waited for Come along and find you, turn the key your door. Hurts my soul, babe, when I find you feeling rough. Life is so bad, baby, when you find the key to love.
