

Pompous Fool

Eric Clapton

Don't you worry
Don't be blue
Let your woman
Take care of you

Live your life
By the golden rule
Pay no mind
To the pompous fool

Do you wanna dance
Do you wanna sing
Do you still believe
That Jerry Lee was king?

Is it your opinion
That Charlie Wilson's cool
Pay no mind
To the pompous fool

In life you know
May I say to you
Be careful who you follow
There may be no more tomorrow
If you follow the pompous fool

So don't you worry
Don't be blue
Let your woman
Take care of you

Do your thing
By the golden rule
Pay no mind
To the pompous fool

In life you know
May I say to you
Be careful who you follow
There ain't nobody home
Fear knocking on the door
In the mind of the pompous fool

Do you wanna laugh
Do you wanna cry
Do you still believe
In you and I

Is it your opinion
That we should start again
And turn the volume
Down from number 10

Don't you worry
Don't be blue
Let your woman
Take care of you

Live your life
By the golden rule
Pay no mind
To the pompous fool
