

Zero

Claptone

Boy, get your car
We can get away
Do you wanna drive
'Cause you're driving me insane
Blow your smoke
Up in silver rings
But I see you through
The hoops you're jumping

I think about it
On lonely nights
The bunny rabbit in my headlights
I dream about it
In black and white
But I'm not gonna sing another lullaby

I need to
Find a river for
My waterfall of thoughts
My waterfall of thoughts
I need to
Find a figure I
Can draw before the nought
'Cause zero is a bore
Zero is a bore

My blood is up
What it's racing for
It's hard to tell
In the light of the dance floor
I'm a peach
I'm a fussy thing
A stony heart
Under soft skin

I think about it
On lonely nights
The bunny rabbit in my headlights
I dream about it
In black and white
But I'm not gonna sing a lullaby

I need to
Find a river for
My waterfall of thoughts
My waterfall of thoughts
I need to
Find a figure I
Can draw before the nought
'Cause zero is a bore
Zero is a bore

Zero is a bore
Zero is a bore
