

Blameless

Clara Benin

Makin up for all of the lies
And my godly soul ties
I dug deep just to bury them all
And all the while I kept thinking
Hey it's not that bad
But the truth is they spread it ten times worse than before
And oh I try so hard just to please You
And oh darkness can't hide its face from You
Your light it exposes everything that is hidden
Let me come clean so I could feel You
Here with me once again
Let me live in Your light
Blameless in Your sight
The tough, the fizzles and weeds
And I threw them away
And I plant thicket seeds by the river I'll stay
But I got too familiar
Started wandering far
I got lost, I got budded I got even it hard
And oh I try so hard just to please You
And oh darkness can't hide its face from you
Your light it exposes everything that is hidden
Let me come clean so I could feel You
Here with me once again
Let me live in Your light blameless
Be still with me
No need to show this through reality
Before the truth could set me free
It's gonna hurt, it's gonna sting
But I'll do anything
Oh it's gonna hurt
It's gonna sting
But I'll do anything
Just to feel You
Here with me
Once again
Let me live in Your light
Blameless in Your sight
Ooh ooh ooh ooh
