

I never liked the feeling of sand beneath my feet
But I love the feeling I get when I'm in front of the sea
I tried to climb a mountain for my sister
I wasn't ready to disappoint her

There are things that keep me up at night
I don't know why, I don't know why
That one time I quietly cried
Listening to Joni on a midnight flight

In a blink of an eye
This could all be gone
So I take my time
And just have fun

I like to drive alone, well sometimes with you
It's the reason why I always take the more scenic route
I try to be a friend to my brother
All I want is to see him better

There are things that keep me up all night
I don't know why, I don't know why
I watched this movie a hundred times
I still laugh and cry every time
Every time

In a blink of an eye
This could all be gone
So I take my time
And just have fun

In a blink of an eye
This could all be gone
So I take my time
And just have fun

I'll embrace every inch of
This space I'm living in
I won't waste a single step
I'm counting it all in
All my regrets and mistakes
Are lessons I hold close
My limbs are bruised
But I am healing
I am fully known
