Alright

Clara Mae

Still tryna lose the thought of your face
But I think about you all the time
I know we said we'd give each other space
Just need to know you're alright

Heard from your mom, you
Got some new tattoos
Moved out of state
Don't mean no pressure
Just need to make sure
That you're okay

Although feelings faded
We're not strangers

Just because we're not friends
Doesn't mean I don't care
Are you alright, alright?
Don't know how to just stop
Used to love you too much
Are you alright, alright?
'Cause I've been losing sleep
Wondering if you're good, so please just
Pick your phone up
Let me know and I'll stop
Are you alright?
Just say you're all alright

Think I needed space, some time alone
Really just to get my head straight
So I saw the world till I went broke
And tried to not look at my phone

Heard from my mom, you
Called her and dad too
Asked how I've been
But I'm still not ready
Too hurt and angry
To let you in

Although feelings faded
We're not strangers

Just because we're not friends
Doesn't mean I don't care
Are you alright, alright?
Don't know how to just stop
Used to love you too much
Are you alright, alright?
'Cause I've been losing sleep
Wondering if you're good, so please just
Pick your phone up
Let me know and I'll stop
Are you alright?
Just say you're all alright
Just say you're all alright

'Cause I've been losing sleep
Wondering if you're good, so please just
Pick your phone up
Let me know and I'll stop
Are you alright?
Just say you're all alright
Just say you're all alright
