

Avalon

Clara Mae

Once in your life
Give it a try
For what it's worth
Don't keep quiet
We don't have the time
If lost for words
You can't decide
Can't build the truth
Based on a lie

Like armour
Around ya
You're locked up
So hear my cry
Cry, cry
Wanna show you my
My, my, my
Aah, Avalon
Aah, Avalon
Still, still
My, my
You're still my Avalon

You feel in your heart you fake it
Lost the key and the will to break it
Don't be judging me
Judging me (don't be)
Judging me
Judging me
When you feel like you've spilled your spirit
Saying things when you don't believe it
I won't be judging you
Judging you
I won't be judging you
Judging you

The perfect touch
Is in your eye
A hidden smile you can't deny
There's no better time
Someone I knew
Told a tale of greatness
I miss the youth
Oh, how we were endless

The demons
Surround ya
You hear them as they cry
Cry, cry
When they barricade my
My, my
Aah, Avalon
Aah, Avalon
Still, still
My, my
You're still my Avalon

You feel in your heart you fake it
Lost the key and the will to break it
Don't be judging me
Judging me (don't be)
Judging me
Judging me
When you feel like you've spilled your spirit
Saying things when you don't believe it
I won't be judging you
Judging you
I won't be judging you
Judging you

My Avalon
My Avalon
Still, still
Still
Yeah, you're still my
You're still my Avalon

You feel in your heart you fake it
Lost the key and the will to break it
Don't be judging me
Judging me (don't be)
Judging me
Judging me
When you feel like you've spilled your spirit
Saying things when you don't believe it
(I won't be judging you)
(Judging you)
No I won't be judging you
Judging you
