

No Jolene

Clara Mae

Hey there across the room
See you staring into the blue
Those blue eyes sure know how to make you fall

Hey girl, don't waste your time
Go find someone else tonight
'Cause there's already someone in his arms

And darling, oh you're no Jolene
You will never take my man from me
Sure, go ahead and try
Try to take what's mine
Darling hey, just let it be
You don't know how much he means to me
Maybe in your dreams
But you will never be
Jolene

Stop acting like a child now
Wanting what you can't have
But if I were you, I would want him too

I could easily understand
How you could easily want my man
But jealousy don't look good on you

Be my guest - be the fool
If that's something you're into
Don't say I didn't warn you

Darling, oh you're no Jolene

Darling, oh you're no Jolene
You will never take my man from me
Sure, go ahead and try
Try to take what's mine
Darling hey, just let it be
Or I'll show how much he means to me
Maybe in your dreams
But you will never be
Jolene

Jolene
Jolene

You will never be
Jolene
Jolene

You will never
Jolene
Jolene
Jolene
