Clara Mae

Ok I'll admit it
This time I went to far
But if you start a fire with me
I'll burn it all

Was it something that you wanted
Or did you only call
To tell me that I'm crazy again
Well if that's what you want

I'd rather go blind
Then an eye for eye
If you're hurting me once
I will give it back twice
You tryna keep up
And it's cute that you try
It's true you're cute

Fuck it
Let's be honest
I'm just better at this game you started
Cause if you go and start a war
You should know that I've fought in one before

So fuck it
I'll just say it
I think you're jealous
And I think you hate it
Don't go calling me a traitor
Hate the game
Don't hate the player

Ok I know all your secrets
The ones you've tried to hide
I know I've found your weakness
But you, you won't ever mine

I'd rather go blind
Then an eye for eye
If you're hurting me once
I will give it back twice
You tryna keep up
And it's cute that you try
It's true you're cute

Fuck it
Let's be honest
I'm just better at this game you started
Cause if you go and start a war
You should know that I've fought in one before

So fuck it
I'll just say it
I think you're jealous
And I think you hate it
Hate the game

Don't hate the player

So now it hurts
When I'm using your own damn words
But you said it first
And I just said it better
