

Growing Up Sucks

Clara

(You're hurting m-)

When I was a child
The world was so pretty
Then I realised
Life's not always easy

And I ain't got no more room in my head
Feels like I might explode and overload and I hate it

Doing fine I just
Break down like twice a day (tw-tw-twice a day)
I love my life but I hate my brain (my brain, hate my brain)
And it's hard to feel this much to be honest
But I, but I try my best to forget, ignore it, nah
Will it ever feel better?
'Cause I'm more confused than ever
It's hard to feel this much to be honest, nah

No hesitatin', I'm tired of waitin', I'm ready to go to war
I told all my demons what's up?
Can't mess my head anymore
Taking control of my mind
That ain't shit easy
Made friends with my pain, now I'm free of the chains
That was holding me down before

Why do, why do, why do I still
Break down like twice a day (tw-tw-twice a day)
I love my life but I hate my brain (my brain, hate my brain)
And it's hard to feel this much to be honest
But I, but I try my best to forget, ignore it, nah
Will it ever feel better?
'Cause I'm more confused than ever
It's hard to feel this much to be honest, nah
