

Falling

Clare Bowen

I just can't seem to help myself
I wear my heart for all to see
Maybe you're that someone else
Another hopeless case like me
The one who always falls in love too fast
The one who thinks that this time, love'll last

Falling, falling
I can't keep myself from falling
Follow, follow, follow me down
Down, down, down, down

It hits me hardest when you smile
The little bit of sadness around your eyes
It says, "I might hold you for a while
"But I will love you all my life"
The one who always falls in love too fast
The one who thinks that this time, love'll last

Falling, falling
I can't keep myself from falling
Follow, follow, follow me down
Going down, down, down, down

Falling, falling
I can't keep myself from falling
Follow, follow, follow me down

Falling, falling
I can't keep myself from falling
Follow, follow, follow me down
Going down, down, down, down
