

Let It Rain

Clare Bowen

Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh

I guess I'm gonna let it rain
Water running down my face
Let it wash away
All the heartache and the pain

I've been losing everything
I never needed anyway
I've had all that I can take
Guess I'm gonna let it rain

Well, I guess I'll let it go
Take a heavy weight from my back
Find a blessing in the storm
Oh, let it brightly light my path

Wanna see the river rise and roll
May the levee break on this soul
Can't have the high without the low
Guess I'm gonna let it go

Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh

Let it rain
Let the clouds above open up surrounding
May the wind blowing
Wrap it's wings around me
Oh, like great oak trees still standing
Once the weather's had its way

A heartbeat's understanding
We may bend but never break
Like the falling leaves
Silver in my hand

Lord, don't give what I can't beg
Yes I'm gonna let it rain

Lady river, rise on up
Come on cleanse my soul
No time left for giving up
I ain't afraid no more

Sweet Lady River, rise on up
I hear the thunder roar
No way, no how I'm giving up
I ain't afraid no more

Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh

I ain't afraid
No more
