

Lijah & the Shadow

Clare Bowen

Someone loved you
Someone kept you
Someone taught you how to dance
Came the hard times
Someone left you
In a field unknown to chance

I had dreamed you
I had missed you
In the darkest place I've been
The ones who hurt us
Out of weakness
Let's trade them roses for their sins

Climbing ladders
Little shadow
Reaching out into the sun
With you my rider
Quiet healer
Make us vital for to run

He tried to brand me
Almost broke me
But he gave me eyes to see
We're starting over
In the clover
Not tied up to someone true
