

Get There Tonight

Clare Dunn

Shut down end of the day
Friday and I just got paid
Got the time and half a mind to spend every penny
So I'm gone like adios
So come on, if you wanna go
Eyes on the prize
Headed for the horizon
Tell me are you with me

Red sun setting like fire to the sky
'99 engine running for the borderline
Fast and free, baby, just you and me
And if tomorrow never comes, that'd be alright
Cause we're making the most of this silver moonlight
Stereo up high, chasing down headlights
And I don't know what we're doing but we're doing it right
And I don't know where we're going
But I bet we gonna get there tonight
Hey, get there tonight
Get there tonight
Get there tonight

Halfway, to the edge of the earth
There's a place where we get down in the dirt
A million stars and a million miles
Away from anything
Middle of good time, middle of nowhere
Middle of just right
Yeah we gonna get it there

Red sunseting like fire to the sky
'99 engine running for the borderline
Fast and free, baby, just you and me
And if tomorrow never comes, that'd be alright
Cause we're making the most of this silver moonlight
Stereo up high, chasing down headlights
And I don't know what we're doing but we're doing it right
And I don't know where we're going
But I bet we gonna get there tonight
Hey, get there tonight
Get there tonight
Get there tonight

Middle of good time
Middle of nowhere
Middle of just right
We gonna get there
Middle of good time
Middle of nowhere
Middle of just right
Yeah, we gonna get there

Red sunseting like fire to the sky
Fast and free, baby, just you and me
And if tomorrow never comes, that'd be alright
Cause we're making the most of this silver moonlight

Stereo up high, chasing down headlights
And I don't know what we're doing but we're doing it right
And I don't know where we're going
But I bet we gonna get there tonight
Hey, get there tonight
Gonna get there tonight
Get there tonight
