

Let Me In

Class Actress

Do you really think you need a change?
Do you really think it goes away?
Everything in life is a gamble
Everything you say just sounds the same

So what, what can I do?
That hasn't, hasn't been done to you?
I could say so not easy
But you know it's hard to stay away

Let me, let me, let me, let me out
Your feet they never touch the ground
Let me, let me, let me, let her out
Follow me up, I'll follow you down

Do you really think you need a change?
Do you really think it goes away?
All your every sighing
Fill you from states away

I never said that I was easy
Never said that you'd stay
So what's the point in breaking even?
If you always catch away?

Let me, let me, let me, let me out
Your feet they never touch the ground
Let me, let me, let me, let her out
Follow me up, I'll follow you down

No, no, never gonna give up on you baby
Never gonna give up
No, no, never gonna give up on you baby
Never gonna give up
No, no, no

Let me, let me, let me, let me out
Your feet they never touch the ground
Let me, let me, let me, let her out
Follow me up, I'll follow you down

Let me, let me, let me, let me out
Your feet they never touch the ground
Let me, let me, let me, let her out
Follow me up, I'll follow you down

Follow me up, I'll follow you down
Follow me up, I'll follow you down
Follow me up, I'll follow you down
Follow me up, I'll follow you down
