

Someone Real

Class Actress

Tough

Do you want
To know the truth
Truth is your holding me too high

Pulling me apart
All the stop and start
Do know how much I truly obsess

On every word you say
Wrong or right
It's just an hour but it keeps me up

And all the world
Could be so new
If you would just

Believe me when I tell you
You need someone real to love
You just need someone real to love
To love
To love

Put your
Put your

Believe me when I tell you
You need someone real to love
You just need someone real to love

Believe when I tell you
You need someone real to love
You just need someone real to love
Ooh, to love
