What Am I Crying For

Classics IV

It was just a passing thing
I dug her and she dug me
Nothing binding

So it came as no surprise
When she left without goodbye
I didn't mind it

Like I've heard it
Said a hundred times
All is fair in love and war

So what am I crying for?
What am I crying for?

She was just another girl
Like a million in the world
Nothing special
Kept me warm when I was cold
Drove the devils from my soul
Now I bet she'll

Find the going rough
And she'll get enough
And come back
Knocking at my door

So what am I crying for?
What am I crying for?

What am I dying for?
She meant nothing to me
I like being free

Guess I'll find somebody new
It's an easy thing to do
That's for certain

I'm not sorry that she's gone
It's not sad to be alone
And I'm not hurting

Now and then
She doesn't cross my mind
And every night
I never walk the floor
What am I lying for

What am I crying for?
What am I crying for?
