Loved it when we were all lost together
Loved it when we were all lost together
I never felt so lonely when we were all together, together, together
Was a long time, long drives, we use to spend together
Now it's different
And I think about our old ways, old days
Everything seem better, now it's different, something missing

I need some rest, I'm feeling stressed
I been too high, feel like a mess
Feel like I strayed, losing my way, hard to assess, need to progress
Head in the cloud, cloud full of smoke
Feeling so tired, under the scope
Feel like I lost, grip with reality
I was just young a different mentality, huh
I didn't know what I had, until it was gone, yea, that's how it always goes
I thought that I knew what I wanted
But I was so wrong, wasn't remotely close

I been looking at it all wrong
Another day another dollar another different song, let's go
I been looking at the same shit, wondering is this it, is this it
And you don't come around
But I know that you're down
So let's go, I been looking at it all wrong, all wrong, all wrong

At 20 years old, they told me I needed to plan my future here
But in the same breath they told me the world is dying there ain't no future here
I know we're confused, trying to see through all the illusions here
I hear the advice, the wrong and the right But honestly I don't know who's sincere
I'm taking a trip through life, and shit there ain't no Uber here
I'm missing the nights, old friends, times change, new careers
Small town, big dreams, trying to find the time of day
To make it up out of our city shit man we were so lost trying to find our way, but I
Loved it when we were all lost together
Loved it when we were all lost together
I never felt so lonely when we were all
Forever, I thought this was forever

I been looking at it all wrong

Now it's different
And I think about our old ways, old days
Everything seem better, now it's different, something missing
And we don't hang out like we used to. that's cool, couple years go passed y ou, it makes a difference, guess that's what they call living
We move in different directions and where we are now is nothing I would have predicted

I know I can't bring the past back, but I won't forget it
We use to talk but now it's crickets, isn't it?
