

Amnesia

Classified

Amnesia I need ya, 'cause I can't forget that feeling
And I can't get it off my mind, been waiting for the hands of time
To heal me, protect me, wipe my memory empty
I'm ready and willing for a reset
'Cause I just can't wait to get Amnesia

Let me come down from the ceiling put my feet back on the floor
80 lbs of pressure feel it deep inside the core
I been flying high but its been harder to endure
Went from sitting on the bench to a starter on the court
Let me black out. like the past, passed out
I'm half maxed out, that close to taped out
Take the wheel from me
Somethings wrong man I feel funny
Like is a monopoly but we playing with real money
Anxiety is through the roof
Best friends flew the coup
Put my head through the a loop
I just wanna slow it down, round and round like hola hoops
'Cause my mind keeps racing let me rest it
Let me rinse away my problems, everything I'm second guessing
Its been taking up my time and I don't know what I been left with
I just need a minute, just a minute to forget it 'cause I'm almost at my lim it
Can I get a bit of

Amnesia I need ya, 'cause I can't forget that feeling

My amnesia
Is rolling up this sativa
Is turning the music louder in my speaker, speaker
It's me and my boys trying to beat each other in FIFA
It's watching my daughter's game from the bleachers (Bleachers)
Take my mind to somewhere else
I been stressing over little things
Any and all distractions help
It's the way you calm me down
When I fall on rocky ground
It's like every step I take you're there with me like Bobby Brown
And life gets harder then you might guess
I been treading water but I'm sinking in my life vest
Never get it twisted though I know that I been quite blessed
But dealing with this life stress
Got me on the brink, man I think I need

Amnesia I need ya, 'cause I can't forget that feeling
