A Stranger Love

Classixx

If you're sure of yourself tonight
Grab a coat and a suit and a tie
Place the links on the cuffs of your shirt
Making sure that your hair is done first

In your heart, in your mind
Your love, she wakes up paralyzed
By your gaze tonight
She will fall tonight

I fell asleep in your big house dreaming
She would wait for me to say goodnight
In my heart, in my head she's turning
Goodbye, goodbye tonight

'Cause it's a stranger love
And it's a stranger love tonight
Yeah it's a stranger love

And if you're sure of yourself tonight
Grab a coat and a suit and a tie
Place the links on the cuffs of your shirt
Making sure that your heart doesn't hurt

In your heart, in your mind
Your love, she waits in all the lines
For all the guys tonight
She will fall behind

I fell asleep in your big house dreaming
She would wait for me to say goodnight
In my heart, in my head she's turning
Goodbye, goodbye tonight

'Cause it's a stranger love
And it's a stranger love tonight
Yeah it's a stranger love
