

All You're Waiting for

Classixx

Somebody's looking for a situation,
Somebody's working on the score
I'm reason nightly for some instigation
Circles running round come back for more
Somebody needs a little more everyday
Somebody needs a little give
I'm gonna line it up, get on the way
And take it there again

Hey wait a minute, just a minute I was ready for the flight
Got my bags packed waiting on the driver curve
So just a minute, take a minute for the change-up
I'm all set to go, set to go

And now I'm all you're waiting for I'm all you're waiting for

Somebody's looking for a situation
Somebody's working on the score
If I never got the invitation
Wold I ever see the exit door
Somebody needs a little more everyday
Somebody needs a little give
I'm gonna line it uá¹-, get on the way
And take it there again

Hey wait a minute, just a minute I was ready for the flight
So just a minute, take a minute for the change-up
