

All You're Waiting For

Classixx

Verse 1:

Somebody's looking for a situation,
Somebody's working on the score
I'm reason nightly for some instigation
Circles running round come back for more
Somebody needs a little more everyday
Somebody needs a little give
I'm gonna line it up, get on the way
And take it there again

Pre-chorus

Hey wait a minute, just a minute I was ready for the flight
Got my bags packed waiting on the driver curve
So just a minute, take a minute for the change-up
I'm all set to go, set to go

Chorus:

And now I'm all you're waiting for
I'm all you're waiting for

Verse 2:

Somebody's looking for a situation
Somebody's working on the score
If I never got the invitation
Would I ever see the exit door
Somebody needs a little more everyday
Somebody needs a little give
I'm gonna line it uáí-, get on the way
And take it there again

Hey wait a minute, just a minute I was ready for the flight

So just a minute, take a minute for the change-up

Pre-chorus

Hey wait a minute, just a minute I was ready for the flight

Got my bags packed waiting on the driver curve

So just a minute, take a minute for the change-up

I'm all set to go, set to go

Chorus:

And now I'm all you're waiting for

I'm all you're waiting for

And now I'm all you're waiting for
