

Haunting Love

Classless Act

You could be born with nothing
Or have it all for free
It don't ever rest
It will never let you be
No matter how you live
No matter where you stay
There's no escape
Cause it always finds a way

Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Oh, oh
And here it comes again
Oh, oh
You gotta believe when I say

That I try, try
And I wish you can see it
Love is haunting me, oh
I try, try
And I wish you can see it
Your love is haunting me, oh

I can't sleep in the night
I keep dreaming awake
I live a nightmare
Where it all just fades away
And that nightmare is you
And all the things you do
The more I think
The more I wanna break through

Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Well here it comes again
Oh, oh
You better believe when I say

That I try, try
And I wish you can see it
Love is haunting me, oh
I try, try
And I wish you can see it
Your love is haunting me, oh

When I was a little boy
I thought that my life was gonna be
All the things that I wanted to be
Now that I'm not a boy no more
I see how every little thing depends on me

Going a bit to the left
Tryin' make it right
Going a bit to the right
Tryin' to see where I left

Ooh, you better believe when I say
That I try, try
And I wish you can see it

And I wish you can see it
I try, I try, try
I try
And I wish you can see it
