Claud

I hate that you told me to masturbate
Instead of comin' over
I hate that I'm riding roller-skates
And you just bought a Ranger Rover
You're running from something
And it's stuck in your head
'Cause all I wanted was loving
Now I wish you the best
Oh, I wish you the best

I don't wanna be rude but this song is for you
And you're losing my trust
I wanted to be cool
But I guess I'm a fool for falling into the lust

Maybe if I had walked you to the train where you left
Maybe if I had talked to you a little bit less
No, I wouldn't be stuck with such a stupid mess
But it's stuck in my head

I don't wanna be rude but this song is for you
And you're losing my trust
I wanted to be cool
But I guess I'm a fool for falling into the lust
I don't wanna be rude but this song is for you
And you're losing my trust (You never had my trust)
I wanted to be cool
But I guess I'm a fool for falling into the lust (I fell into the lust)

So I sit in my room
Watch the people go by
If I'm Pepsi
You're coke
We both know that I'm right
But this time
I don't mind

I wanted to be cool
But I guess I'm a fool for falling into the lust
