

Running

Claud

All the things that I wrote off
All the piled up missed calls
I should've seen right through the glass
Point of view stuck in the past

Little Rock and little stone
Arkansas at ten years old
I used to break my back in two
To get a single look from you

Are you still running
Try and catch me if you can
Will you still love me
If my leg's not in a cast
If my leg's not in a cast

Are you running
Are you running
Are you running
Are you running
Are you running
Are you running

A bird hit my window
Broken wing broken nose
I saved him with water and sugar
Held him softly like you should've

Little Rock and little stone
I came here at ten years old
Bought you a T-shirt souvenir
And a postcard
Wish you were here

Are you still running
Try and catch me if you can
Will you still love me
If my leg's not in a cast
If my leg's not in a cast

Are you running
Are you running
Are you running

Locked in clocked in
Did you ever watch me pass the line
Blast in, blasting
Did you ever watch the master find
Last in, lasting
Did you ever watch me walk the line
Blast in, glass in
Did you ever watch me
Did you ever watch me
Did you

Are you still running
Try and catch me if you can

Will you still love me
If my leg's not in a cast
If my leg's not in a cast

Are you running
Are you still running
Try and catch me if you can
Will you still love me
If my leg's not in a cast
If my leg's not in a cast
