Patience, I don't got that
Defensive, like a left back
I'm fucked up, but that's off track
I'm guarded, but I'm sure that

I'm gonna be letting you down
Gonna be gonna be letting you down
Tonight, again
Cause' I know that you'll be back around
Know that know that you'll be back around
Tonight, again

But I ain't got no time for that, time for that
And I don't play no mind to that, mind to that
So if we keep this under wraps, under wraps
Then we can get right back to that, back to that
Cause' every time I say no no no
Every time I say no no no no
There's a knock on my door, every quarter past four
And every time I say go go go
Every time I say go go go
You'll be at the front door
Every quarter past four

Heartache, not on my time
My type, no you won't find
Knocking, on the spotlight
But I won't bite
'Till the times right

Cause' I'm gonna be letting you down
Gonna be gonna be letting you down
Tonight, again
Cause' I know that you'll be back around
Know that know that you'll be back around
Tonight, again

But I ain't got no time for that, time for that
And I don't play no mind to that, mind to that
So if we keep this under wraps, under wraps
Then we can get right back to that, back to that
Cause' every time I say no no no
Every time I say no no no no
There's a knock on my door, every quarter past four
And everytime I say go go go
Everytime I say go go go
You'll be at the front door
Every quarter past four

(Gonna be letting you down, know that you'll be back around, again)

But I ain't got no time for that time for that
And I don't play no mind to that
So if we keep this under wraps under wraps
Then we can get right back to that, back to that
Cause' everytime I say no no no
Everytime I say no no no no

There's a knock on my door, every quarter past four
And everytime I say go go go
Everytime I say go go go
You'll be at the front door
